This matter comes before the Court on defendant Clow Corporation's ("Clow") Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint for Failure to Establish Personal Jurisdiction (Doc. 1120) to which Plaintiff Billie Denton has responded (Doc. 1194). For the following reasons, the Court grants the motion.

Plaintiff alleges decedent Robert F. Denton ("Decedent") was exposed to and inhaled, ingested or otherwise absorbed large amounts of asbestos fibers from products manufactured, sold, [[*1180]] distributed, or installed by Clow. Plaintiff alleges no facts indicating Decedent's injuries arose from Clow's connections to the State of Illinois. Clow filed the instant motion to dismiss pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(2) arguing this Court does not have personal jurisdiction.

Here, because no material facts are in dispute, the Court may rule on Defendant's motion absent an evidentiary hearing. See Hyatt Intl Corp. v. Coco, 302 F.3d 707, 712-13 (7th Cir. 2002). Where a court rules on a Rule 12(b)(2) motion on paper, the plaintiff "need only make out a prima facie case of personal jurisdiction." Id. at 713.

In diversity cases, a district court has personal jurisdiction over a defendant "who is subject to the jurisdiction of a court of general jurisdiction in the state where the district court is located." Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(k)(1)(A). Illinois' long-arm statute allows the exercise of jurisdiction to the full extent permitted under the Due Process Clause. Tamburo v. Dworkin, 601 F.3d 693, 700 (7th Cir. 2010). Accordingly, a district court sitting in Illinois must inquire whether [*1181] the "defendant has certain minimum contact with [the State] such that the maintenance of the suit does not offend 'traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.'" Daimler AG v. Bauman, 134 S. Ct. 746, 754, 187 L. Ed. 2d 624 (2014) (quoting Goodyear Dunlop Tires Operations, S.A. v. Brown, 131 S. Ct. 2846, 2853, 180 L. Ed. 2d 796 (2011)). Personal jurisdiction may be either specific or general. Daimler AG, 134 S. Ct. at 751-53.

Specific jurisdiction arises where an out-of-state "defendant has 'purposefully directed' his activities at residents of the forum, Keeton v. Hustler Magazine, Inc., 465 U.S. 770, 774, 104 S. Ct. 1473, 79 L. Ed. 2d 790 (1984), and the litigation results from alleged injuries that 'arise out of or relate to those activities' Helicopteros Nacionales de Colombia, S.A. v. Hall, 466 U.S. 408, 414, 104 S. Ct. 1868, 80 L. Ed. 2d 404 (1984)." Burger King Corp. v. Rudzewicz, 471 U.S. 462, 472-73, 105 S. Ct. 2174, 85 L. Ed. 2d 528 (1985). Here, Plaintiff that Decedent's alleged injuries do not arise out of or relate to Clow's contacts with Illinois. As such, this Court lacks specific personal jurisdiction over the claims against Clow.

General jurisdiction arises over a foreign corporation "when their affiliations with the State are so 'continuous and systematic' as to render them essentially at home in the forum State." Goodyear, 131 S. Ct. at 2851. With respect to a corporation, the place of incorporation and principal place of business are 'paradigm[ ] . . . bases for general jurisdiction." Daimler AG, 134 S. Ct. at 760 (quoting Brilmayer et al, A General Look at General Jurisdiction, 66 Texas L. Rev. 723, 735 (1988)). A foreign corporation, however, may be "at home in the forum State" where its "continuous corporate operations within a state [*1182] [are] so substantial and of such a nature as to justify suit." International Shoe Co. v. Washington, 326 U.S. 310, 318, 66 S. Ct. 154, 90 L. Ed. 95 (1945); see also Perkins v. Benguet Consol. Mining Co., 342 U.S. 437, 72 S. Ct. 413, 96 L. Ed. 485, 63 Ohio Law Abs. 146 (1952) (general jurisdiction appropriate in Ohio over Philippine corporation where the company's affairs were overseen in Ohio during the war).

Here, Plaintiff does not assert that Clow is incorporated or maintains its principal place of business in Illinois. Further, Plaintiff has not suggested that Clow's affiliation with Illinois is "so continuous and systematic as to render” Clow at home in Illinois. Clow undoubtedly has contacts in Illinois. However, the Supreme Court has made it clear that the mere presence of a defendant in the forum does not subject it to all-purpose jurisdiction in that forum. See Daimler AG, 134 S. Ct. at 752, 762 (finding no general jurisdiction over a foreign corporation where subsidiary, whose actions were assumed attributable to the corporation, had multiple facilities and a regional office in the forum state). Accordingly, Plaintiff has failed to make out a \textit{prima facie} case of personal jurisdiction.

For the foregoing reasons, the Court \textbf{GRANTS} Clow’s Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff’s First Amended Complaint for Failure to Establish Personal Jurisdiction (Doc. 1120) and \textbf{DISMISSES} Plaintiff’s claims against Clow without prejudice. [*1183]
