

Daudi Karungi

Founder, Afriart Gallery

Daudi is at the forefront of a movement that promotes contemporary art from East Africa. In 2007, he co-founded START, a journal of arts and culture criticism (startjournal.org). He is a founding member of the Kampala Arts Trust (KART), a coalition of artists and art appreciators in the country and elsewhere who are working toward the dream of making art an integral part of Ugandan society. Among KART's projects is establishing a modern art museum in the country which will facilitate research, exchange programs and training as well as offering a state-of-the-art exhibition space for local works. KART also produces the Kampala Art Biennale and Daudi has worked as its Director since 2014.

Daudi Karungi

Founder, Afriart Gallery

Daudi studied at the Margaret Trowell School of Industrial and Fine Arts at Makerere University, Kampala and was a practicing artist from 2002-2016. He founded Afriart Gallery (AAG) in 2002 with a focus on advancing careers of African contemporary artists as well as forging collaborations among artists, professionals and institutions globally. The gallery artists have been featured in major international exhibitions, art auctions, Biennales, and Art Fairs.
