

Greenberg Traurig's Global Trailblazers: Protecting and Amplifying Voices D&I Summit

Ankith Nath

Title: Sr. Corporate Legal Analyst, Deloitte's Office of the Global General Counsel

Alternative Title: Deloitte Millennial Ambassador

Biography

Ankith Nath is a 2016 honors graduate of Emory University and member of Deloitte's Office of the Global General Counsel. Based out of Midtown Manhattan, Ankith focuses primarily on cross-border M&A and corporate governance affairs, working closely with a distinguished team of senior legal and business leaders, hailing from preeminent corporate law firms, investment banks, Big 4 peers & US financial regulators.

Fervently committed to civic engagement, outside of his day-to-day OGC responsibilities, Ankith serves as an inner-city youth mentor for the NYC Mayor's Office and leads Deloitte's Societal Impact team. In this capacity, Ankith spearheads Deloitte's WorldClass initiative, leading highly collaborative, skills-based career development sessions for under-represented NYC high-school mentees, via in-office monthly mentorship sessions.

Most recently, Ankith, was appointed by Deloitte's Office of the Global CEO to serve as Deloitte's sole Millennial Ambassador in a live-streamed interview with Deloitte's Global Chief Talent Officer and One Young World Founder- David Jones. In 2018, Emory University's senior leadership, appointed Ankith, to represent his alma mater as University Ambassador and NextGen speaker, at the 2018 MSNBC TV Hope Global Forums, an Inclusive Economics CEO Thought-Leadership Conference, formerly addressed by the 42nd US President Bill Clinton.