

Today's Conversations, Tomorrow's Successes

Conversations Management and Board Members of Nonprofit Organizations Should Have On Leadership Diversity, Accounting Matters, Risk Management and Tax Requirements

2018 Chattanooga Nonprofit Seminar Thursday, November 1, 2018 | The Westin, Ballroom A

8 a.m. – 8:30 a.m.	Registration and Light Breakfast
8:30 a.m. – 8:35 a.m.	Welcome Jim Catanzaro, Shareholder, Chambliss Law Firm Jennifer Goodman, Shareholder, Elliott Davis
8:35 a.m. – 9:05 a.m.	Growing Minority Nonprofit Board Membership Wade Hinton, Vice President of Diversity and Inclusion, Unum How intentional inclusivity and diversity efforts can allow nonprofit organizations to gain access to insights and community resources that might otherwise not be available.
9:05 am – 9:55 am	Accounting Matters Alan Doak, Senior Manager, Elliott Davis Looking beyond the numbers to the key conversations you should be having about current accounting matters and trends.
9:55 am – 10:05 am	Break
10:05 am – 10:55 am	How Close the Abyss. Why Liquidity Management is Key to Effective Board Oversight Jim Catanzaro, Shareholder, Chambliss Law Firm Learn about alarming recent statistics showing just how financially vulnerable most nonprofits are, including what should be done to limit such vulnerabilities and avoid resulting personal risk should failure occur.
10:55 am – 11:25 am	Cybersecurity Considerations for Nonprofits Cal Marshall, Associate, Chambliss Law Firm The whys and how of cybersecurity for nonprofits, using principles and recommendations from federal IRS and NIST cybersecurity guidance.
11:25 am – 12:15 am	Tax Requirements for Nonprofits Janice Ratica, Shareholder, Elliott Davis Addressing the impact of tax reform on your nonprofit organizations and ideas for enriching 990 reporting.
12:15 pm – 12:30 pm	Q&A