

Rhonda Jordan

EVP / Chief Human Resources Officer
Virtua Health

Rhonda Jordan is executive vice president and chief human resources officer for Virtua Health, a $2 billion NJ health system with 14,000 employees. With 30+ years' experience, Rhonda plays an essential role in business growth by leveraging her HR acumen, humanizing the colleague experience, and ensuring that right people are in the right roles.

Directing all HR operations -- including talent management, organizational culture, change and development, talent acquisition, and more -- Rhonda leads the inclusion, diversity and equity agenda, creating a workforce of engagement and belonging.

Under Rhonda's leadership, Virtua has been consistently rated a Best Place to Work, more recently landing on Forbes America's Best Employers list. From championing colleague communities to creating an environment of continuous learning, celebrating teamwork, and colleague well-being, Rhonda fosters an employee-driven "culture of we."

One of South Jersey Biz's "Women to Watch," and Philadelphia Business Journal's Diversity Leader in Business recipients, Rhonda has held prior leadership positions including at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. A certified senior human resources professional, master coach and Six Sigma green belt trained, she earned her undergraduate degree from Lamar University and master's degree from Capella University.

Rhonda is a steadfast advocate of women in leadership. She is on the board of Junior Achievement of New Jersey and is an active member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc. She also serves on the Workforce Development Board of Burlington County.
